Experience & Practice Area

Hillary joined Kenyon Disend after practicing eight years as a deputy prosecuting attorney in the Civil Division of the Snohomish County Prosecuting Attorney's Office and four years in private practice. Her diverse practice at Snohomish County included both litigation and risk management roles. She defended the County in a variety of civil matters, including land use, civil rights, employment, and tort claims in both state and federal courts and on appeal.

While in law school at the University of Washington, Hillary worked for the Washington State Attorney General and the King County Prosecuting Attorney's Office. She also had an externship with Supreme Court Justice Bobbe Bridge. After law school, Hillary spent one year clerking for Superior Court Judge Gerald L. Knight.
