Experience & Practice Area

After previously working at Kenyon Disend, Kendra Rosenberg has returned to the firm as a partner to continue her passion to serve the firm's clients with quality legal work and integrity. She has been a practicing municipal attorney for more than 10 years. Prior to returning to Kenyon Disend, Kendra served as the in-house Auburn City Attorney.

Kendra's practice has a special emphasis on employment and labor law, code enforcement, police-related issues, and real property law, including condemnation matters. She routinely negotiates a variety of municipal matters such as forfeitures, franchise agreements, and contract claims. Kendra regularly drafts legislation and policy updates. She prides herself in partnering with a variety of City staff including City leadership to identify risk and liability issues, propose solutions, and support the goals of her clients.

Kendra has developed materials and given presentations on a variety of municipal topics including open government issues such as the Open Public Meetings Act and the Public Records Act, police legal updates, and public procurement and contracting law.
