Experience & Practice Area

Kristin Husebye became an associate at Kenyon Disend in 2024, and since that time has provided valuable support to our firm's City Attorneys on a wide range of legal municipal matters. Her litigation experience is particularly valuable in the firm's representation of cities in code enforcement matters.

Before joining our team, Kristin served as the Director of Skagit Legal Aid's Housing Justice Project in Mount Vernon, Washington. She previously also was a housing attorney in New York City and throughout Washington state. In those roles, she provided legal counsel and advice, and represented clients in court and mediation. Kristin also has experience in family law litigation.

Kristin is the owner and operator of a Brazilian Jiu-Jitsu academy, and devotes her free time to the practice of martial arts.
